OBITUARY.

Charles C. Marcum was born near Fallsburg in Lawrence Co., Ky. Oct. 11, 1892 and departed this life November 16, 1917 at the age of 25 years, one month and five days. He had lately enlisted in the army and was a member of the 5th Company, 2nd Battalion, 158th Dept. Brigade and was at Camp Zachary Taylor, Louisville, Ky. when he died. His father, Henry Marcum of Normal, Ky. received a letter bearing date Nov. 17, 1917, from his commanding officer notifying him of his son's death and informing him that Charley became ill while in line of duty on Saturday, November 16 and was taken to the hospital where he was in care of the physicians of the camp and that he died at 4 p. m., November 16 from pneumonia. He further stated that Charley was an excellent soldier and was universally liked by his officers and fellow soldiers and his untimely death is a source of genuine sorrow to all of them. Charley's little sister, Georgia, received a letter from C. E. McWhorter bearing date Nov. 18th. He was one of Charley's comrades, stating that the entire company of Boyd county boys, as well as himself, extend their sympathy to her and father and mother in these hours of sadness. He says Charley died an honorable death and we hope that he is today enjoying greatest pleasures in a better world. Weep not, dear father, mother, sisters, brothers and friends, Charley died for his country and our dear Christ died for us. Charley was rational until death and we have faith that he prayed to our God who will rescue the perishing and will care for the dying. The writer knew Charley all his life and was his Sunday school superintendent for years. He was kind, hearty and loved by his many friends.

Let us believe that he will live
Live on and on forever,
And rise and shine midheaven
sublime
Beyond death's chilling river.
ADAM HARMAN.
